Dear Dick:

Now that vacation is here at last I can write you a long overdue letter. As you may or may not know, with the coming of the new year WYBC operates under the direction of a new Executive Committee. As the newly elected Chairman I naturally will take over where Ron left off in connection with the IBS convention. I have read over your correspondences and know that there is a lot left to be done.

As you well know now is not too soon to start ironing out some of the intricate details. During the school year the distance between Malvern and New Haven makes visits inconvenient, and phone conversations sometimes can be awkward (and expensive). Since I live in Princeton, New Jersey I would very much like to take advantage of this proximity to visit with you sometime during the holidays. I have brought a list of available halls, their capacities and costs, home with me, and I'm sure you would like to look it over. Ron has left me little other information as to exactly what we as hosts will be responsible for, and I would naturally like to take definite steps in January if not sooner. In connection with guest speakers and hotel accommodations I have ideas and/or suggestions that you might find acceptable.

I am anxious to meet with you sometime soon in Malvern in the hopes that we could then hash out all problems and ideas. Besides, it would be a break from my inevitable "last minute clash" with the holiday ^{shopping} crowds. My home address is listed above and the phone number is WA 4-5036.

I am looking forward to the convention but more immediately to a meeting with you. I will await your reply.

Sincerely,

John H. Davison
